1. Diana Bartletti

Life Outside the Shell

2. Kay Colvin

Keep It Beautiful

"The sea, once it casts its spell, holds one in its net of wonder forever."

— Jacques Cousteau

3. Carolyn Cope

My Favorite Cypress

This wonderful tree I have watched from our house since the day I was born in 1950. It was planted in the late 1880s on the grounds of the Derby House. It always adds that bit of "subject" to our ever awesome Encinitas sunsets!

4. Dody Crawford

Melancholy Muse

*Oh I am a lonely painter
I live in a box of paints
I'm frightened by the devil
And I'm drawn to those ones that ain't afraid
I remember that time that you told me, you said Love is touching souls
Surely you touched mine 'cause
Part of you pours out of me
In these lines from time to time*

From "A Case of You" by Joni Mitchell

5. Bre Custodio

Palm Trees Through Stained Glass

Warm tropical waters surround you. You are far from where you live but have never felt more at home. Breathe in the salty air and enjoy this moment.

Find more of Bre's art and fine art prints at www.createdbybre.com.

6. Diane Dudek

Swami's Palms

Swami's is one of our town's best known surf spots and also a great place to paint. Diane Dudek has been painting en plein air for many years. She is a Realtor by day. You can see more of her local art at www.dianedudek.com and local homes for sale too!

7. Julie Fitch

Sunflowers in San Pasqual Valley

The artist's share of the proceeds from the sale of Sunflowers in San Pasqual Valley will go to Susan G. Komen for the Cure, Breast Cancer Research. Thank you for your support.

8. Bev Goodman and Taylor Chapin

Love Is Forever

9. Karin Grow

Whoo Do You Love

I'm a full-time artist native to Encinitas and inspired by all the creatures that inhabit our beautiful community. For a peek at what I'm doing now, you can find me on Instagram or email me at karingrow@gmail.com

12. Cutter Hays

The Way to a Dream

This is a piece done in acrylic (of course, because nothing else will work on this vinyl), of the balancing act it takes to live a fully realized, fulfilled life. One could see it as terribly frightening or infinitely beautiful. The look on her face is meant to be mysterious. It's hard to read what she's thinking, but it looks like she's got it handled.

13. Heather Hebert del Cuadro

LeadHealerTeacherEarthCitizen

I love nature, people, energy, and Mother Earth. Art awakens and heals the human senses and spirit! I need $1 million to open a Healing Family Chakra Center in San Diego. My center would have healing art for sale created by the kids, a healing light room, a private healing room, and a healing family Yoga room. Call me at 760-458-3250 if you can help me. Blessings and Life Particles!

10. Thora Guthrie

Kelp Colony

These playful Garibaldi represent the spirit, the freedom and fun of the years I have spent reveling in and around the many oceans and seas of the world. They also represent the free spirit of our ocean-oriented life here in Encinitas. The artist's share of the proceeds will be donated to the new Pacific View Arts and Cultural Center.

14. Trisha Hilder

Sunset Over the Ocean

My favorite way to end the day is with the sunset over the ocean. I feel so lucky to live in such a beautiful place where we get to watch the sunset over the ocean everyday. There are so many places throughout the world where the beautiful ocean is not easily accessible, and I feel so lucky that I get to visit the ocean everyday. I painted this piece to reflect how grateful I am for the beautiful ocean we have and its beautiful sunset.

15. Ingrid Hoffmeister-Hoy

I approach the canvas with no preconceived notion of what will emerge. I follow my inner visions and active imagination as they spontaneously discover the colors and form of the piece. It is visual story telling... a deep echo of my personal life and relationship to the collective.

19. Shannon Martin

Vibrant Jellyfish

I love everything related to the sea and my interests in swimming and surfing influence many of my artworks. The Vibrant Jellyfish banner continues my ongoing underwater exploration. The countless plants and animals that call the sea their home are mysterious and fascinating. That's why I enjoy painting them. It's a chance to dream and wonder. Artist's share of the proceeds to be donated to Children of the Nations charity. Contact: sjmartin6@gmail.com

16. Bobby Kennedy

Headin' South

Inspired by the many walks taken along these shores. Very glad to be participating in this event.

20. Carole Mayne

Egret, San Elijo Lagoon

Carole Mayne has been creating artwork in Leucadia for 44 years. Her work can be seen displayed locally at the Lotus Cafe in the Lumberyard and the Craftsman Revival Store in Solana Beach. Her complete bio, as well as archived paintings, stained glass window designs, and contact info are available on the website, www.carolemayne.com. She has won numerous awards and teaches oil painting to adults at her Leucadia studio.

17. Annie Leaf

'Owling At the Moon

Great Horned Owls make their home throughout Encinitas, as do Red Tailed Hawks, Peregrine Falcons, Barn Owls, and even the occasional Osprey. Dark skies and open spaces are critical to their habitat; let's protect those areas that provide refuge for these magnificent birds...

21. Kathi McCord

My banner is an homage to Lewis Carroll. This song is sung in Alice in Wonderland by the mock turtle. I have a singing frog instead: "Beautiful soup, beautiful soup, soup of the evening, beoooootiful soup." Besides, I don't know any mock turtles, but I know MANY frogs.

18. Laura Lowenstein

Waiting for the Next Moment to Arrive

Laura Lowenstein is a longtime member of the San Dieguito Art Guild. She enjoys the natural beauty of the coastal area and is inspired by the simple things in life.

22. Martin Nasim

Wonders of the Night

I was born during the summer of 1977 in Sofia, the capital of my country, Bulgaria. My name is Martin Nasim. I'm a self-taught painter inspired by objects in nature that I observe and rearrange through my own thought interpretation. I paint with markers on Plexiglass. I want to share my art with whomever finds it interesting, inspiring, and touching.

23. Helaina Rain

Closed Eyes, Open Mind

Helaina Rain is an aspiring artist located locally in Cardiff, California. Her inspirations stem from her daily life and her interactions with the people around her. She hopes to further her education as a growing artist in all fields as she continues her schooling after her years at San Dieguito Academy.

24. Jennifer Richards

Clownfish

As a painter, Jennifer Richards' work is rooted in her appreciation for the diverse landscapes, flora, and geology on our dynamic planet.

25. Lee Rotscheck

Thank you to the Arts Alive program and Danny Salzhandler for this opportunity. My daughter Brynja and I had a wonderful time working together on this painting. We drew our inspiration from the work of James Coleman and Roy Tobora when we composed this impression of Kauai's Na Pali Coast. Hope you enjoy it as much as we enjoyed creating it.

26. Margi Saccomanno

The Chain

The world is plagued by religious hostility. I referred to The Idiot's Book On World Religions. It recommended to keep an open mind with "nonsectarian knees" because "we are all in the same boat."

27. Anila Saier and Kaikani Saier-Bennett

28. Judy Salinsky

Homegrown Encinitas

Our town has been a mecca for many ideas and events; healthy living, freshness in spirit and creativity are just a few. Homegrown Encinitas represents all of that, going back to our roots! Every year, I have tried to create what Encinitas means to me and what we have to share with people who are new to our community. Growing up in Encinitas has given me an appreciation of what we have. Let's take care of our town.

29. Essenz Schenker

Painting the Roses Red

Inspired by an image from the original Alice In Wonderland book written by Lewis Carroll and its timeless illustrations by John Tenniel.

30. Elisabeth Sullivan

Surf's Up

Encinitas artist Elisabeth Sullivan's acrylic paintings and murals are inspired by her fascination with the incredible forces of nature and the magnificent creatures that inhabit this beautiful planet.

31. Sheryl Tempchin

Diamond in the Sky

My banner this year is a return to my childhood pastime of drawing “stars” as brightly colored geometric shapes. The stars in the sky were fascinating, but distant and mysterious. By drawing representations of them I could bring them closer and make them accessible and personable, like friends. It still works. sherylttempchin.com

32. Vinnie Tessieri

33. Linda Volz

Midsummer Nite

A lavender night is an artist's delight! The Southern California coast offers continual ever-changing inspiration to plein air artists. My contact is lindamvolz@gmail.com.

34. Steve Webb

The Mummies Had Questions... Many Questions

At Art for the Common Dog we're still working hard just trying to lighten it up... a bit.

35. Laura K. Woodward

School of Royal Angels

I am fortunate to be participating in the Arts Alive banner program for a fifth year. I love color and find inspiration in the beautiful, bright, glowing colors of tropical fish. The possibilities for artistic interpretation and design are endless! My banner this year is a school of royal angelfish floating regally through the deep blue sea.

36. Tish Wynne

Lagoon Life

I love wildlife and nature. Living by the beautiful lagoons of this coastal community is an inspiration to the soul. The water, wildlife and plants glow with wonder every sunrise and sunset.

38. Lauren Bartram

Cellar Door #2

My goal this year as a Tattooer and Painter is to draw, paint, and study the traditional Japanese style. This was my first attempt at painting a koi fish, which I thoroughly enjoyed. I am excited with its outcome and greatly look forward to my continuing education. You can find me at 454 Tattoo doing what I love best.

39. Victoria Bearden

Meditrina

Meditrina is the Roman Goddess of wine and healing. Her theme is health and longevity. Her symbols are healing charms and herbal preparations. I love painting the "Divine Feminine" in all of her aspects, and took this opportunity to create in one of my favorite styles, Art Nouveau. Goddess Blessings to all, and CHEERS! Victoria Bearden is a fine artist and well-known Psychic and Astrologer. www.vbearden.com | www.astrologervic.com

40. Donna Butnik

Flower Power

I love colors and the shapes of flowers. I've been painting and showing my art for 40 years. I have an exhibit now at the Cardiff Library thru the end of March, titled "Time Passes." There are 21 paintings selected from each decade.

www.artpaintings4decor.com

41. Roger Chandler

The Happy Little Buddha is a sweet children's book that will be released in March, 2016. It was written by Encinitas local, Michael James and illustrated by artist, Roger Chandler. This story of self-discovery will entertain and educate everyone on all levels, with valuable soul lessons that delight young and old alike. Come dance the happy dance with The Happy Little Buddha! Visit us at www.thehappylittlebuddha.com or on Facebook, Twitter, Instagram and Pinterest.

42. Christopher Dillman

Andy On Rail - The Signature Roundhouse from Kauai's Finest

A fine arts major from the University of the Pacific, Christopher Dillman has painted his admiration for Arts Alive and North County, San Diego since 2008. For Christopher's collection of work for Arts Alive, please visit: www.fullblend.com.

43. Don Doerfler

Hula Sunset

Just dreaming about another day in paradise, here or in Hawaii. No matter, we are so fortunate to live in one of the most beautiful environments in the world. Wishing everyone much ALOHA!

44. Bobbi Duley

Bobbi is a graphic designer by trade, and enjoys painting as a pastime, as well as many other creative endeavors.

www.plaid-design.com
art@plaid-design.com

45. Mary Fleener

Comix Artist / Writer

Fleener has a varied career in comics and fine art. Her work has appeared in mainstream magazines, underground comix publications, and she is best known for her "Cubismo" style of drawing and autobiographical stories. She is also a musician, and much of her work illustrates the performing arts.

46. May Hoegen

This year, it was amazing for all of the senses getting to swim so up close with whale sharks. It was like swimming with a sea of stars.

47. Bob Hord

Franz-S: Patron Saint of Macanimals

Rigorous ruminator of robustly refined robots.

48. Jim Hornung

Fun at the Beach and the Perfect Lineup

A puppy as a muse can result in some whimsy when transferred to canvas with paint.

49. Darlene Katz

Doggone Days of Summer

Darlene's award-winning work is found in California galleries, national juried shows, and private and corporate collections. She enjoys capturing special moments of our lives, whether it's a special place, wedding, birth, or a dog with a favorite toy. Her work is bold, yet technically proficient, no matter what the subject, and her unique style is recognizable in all of her work. See more at studiokatz.com

50. Bill Kaye

Moby's Buddy

And, I'm Bill Kaye. Have you seen the white whale?

51. Christopher Law

Angel of Love

In this luminous sunset, a mother and father cherish their little angel of love. This piece completes the Little Angel Series titled Faith, Hope, and Love.

52. Jim McConlogue

Jim McConlogue paints another in his series of travel posters of Encinitas. Look for his original oil paintings at the Leucadia Art Gallery and Corner Frame Shop, 1038 North Coast Highway 101, and online at www.JimMcConlogue.com. As with his other banner art, this image will be available as a Fine Art Giclée Print on canvas and paper. Call Jim to commission a painting for your home or office! 760-859-7541

53. Patti McDuffie

Morning Tide

A native Southern Californian, Patti's love of the ocean and lagoons is reflected in her paintings. Favorite subjects include seascapes, landscapes, wildlife, shells and flowers. Patti taught art for 11 years at a local elementary school and is a preschool teacher who brings art of the masters to very young children. She believes that hands-on learning is key at any age.

54. Ann Muriel

Counting Crow

Counting Crow is a tribute to the daily crow commute that we have witnessed from our east balcony in Encinitas. The crows have a great life... the beach during the day and the warmer nights inland. If you would like prints of this piece or other artwork of mine, you can contact me through my website at www.amurielyoga.com.

55. Lisa Roche

Waiting for the Rain

"The Drought" has been the big news this past year. Ironically, this banner was completed during the gushing rainstorms during the week of January 4, 2016. Lisa is an award-winning oil painter residing in North County. Her paintings are found in private collections throughout the United States. She LOVES to fulfill portrait commission requests done in oil! www.gypsycreations.com / Phone - 760.931.6112

56. San Dieguito Academy: Maxine Richter

Sea Mustang

Maxine Richter is a senior at SDA with a passion for art and design. This banner is a combination of SDA's mascot, a Mustang, and a marine animal, which represents Encinitas' deep and symbiotic relationship with the ocean. She was given this opportunity through SDA's Interact/Rotary club.

57. Tonia Senoo

Mabie

Self-taught artist and native San Diegan, Tonia Senoo, resides in Oceanside, CA with her husband and 3 children. A former commercial pilot turned SAHM, and explorer by nature, she has a multitude of beautiful imagery that she would like to share with the world through her paintings. Available for consignment to paint canvases, murals and surfboards. Find her at hafudesigns.com or on Instagram as hafumoo.

58. Julie Ann Stricklin

Spirit of Boho Nation

My 2016 banner, SPIRIT OF BOHO NATION, was a true "cognitive flow" piece. It came together by adding random elements and enjoying my time experimenting with techniques. I started with zero vision and had no destination in mind. By surprise, it came together like random memories make a dream. I felt happy creating it. I listened to vintage Aretha while working... she always makes my heart smile.

59. Grace Swanson

Venice Carnival Mask

The Carnival of Venice, which started in the year 1162, is an annual festival world-famed for its elaborate masks. Venetian masks can be made of leather, porcelain or using the original glass technique, but most are made with the application of gesso and gold leaf and are hand-painted using natural feathers and gems.

60. Minnie Valero

No Rain, No Rainbow

In Life, as in Nature, we must accept the rain, the problems and the inconveniences in order to see the rainbow and to reach our goals. A native of Argentina, my home and my heart are in San Diego, and in the South of France a few months each year.

61. David Paul Windham

A Long Time Ago in an Ocean Not Far Away

David Paul Windham began abusing the canvas at age three on the west side of Las Vegas from whence he hails. The desert surrounding Las Vegas was once an ocean and if you look closely you can still find fossils of long-extinct aquatic vertebrates.

63. Marina Alberti

Flower Heaven

Sometimes you just need to close your eyes and embrace the simple moments of life. To feel the warmth of sunshine on your face, and let your mind wander off from the daily tasks. To lie back in the flowers and look up at the sky. The intriguing way shadows fall upon the human profile and the feeling of calmness that arose every time I saw the simplicity of nature were sources of inspiration for this art piece.

64. Alycia Drube

Cephalopod Love

Thanks to the Monterey Bay Aquarium photo collection, I bring you up close and personal to Octopoda vulgaris. The waters off the Encinitas coast are home to many interesting and beautiful creatures! We need to celebrate and remember our oceanic neighbors in order to protect them. Alycia M. Drube works locally as an interior muralist for homes and businesses. To see her work go to AMDPaintings.com.

65. Jessica Fuller

Jessica, a North County coastal local, has been drawing ever since she could hold a pencil. Always drawn to bright colors, she is inspired by fabric and 1960s poster art. Jessica makes stickers, paintings, paintings on skateboard decks, posters, prints, stained glass and jewelry.

Follow Jessica on Instagram:
@Psychedeliced

69. Artie Mattson

Artie Mattson's whimsical artwork has a little bit of Encinitas in every drawing. They have a magnetism that encourages the viewer to be transfixed by the scenes and scenarios in her work. "I draw what I see in my head." Her work is inspired by what she sees and from her imagination.

66. Daniel Hernandez

Surf City

Hi, my name is Daniel Hernandez and I MAKE STUFF! The title of my banner is Surf City. It combines both my passions; surfing and pinball! The playfield is a reproduction of an actual table entitled Fast Draw, manufactured by D. Gottlieb & Co., Chicago, IL, in 1975. The artist's proceeds from the sale of my banner will go to support Punk Rock Food Drive (punkrockfood.org).

70. Mariah Mercado

Flo

Mariah Mercado is a sophomore at Carlsbad High School. Her inspiration stems from her love for surf and her appreciation of the ocean. Flo displays a sea turtle just "Flo"-ing through life. Mariah plans to grow in her artistic abilities with hopes of one day illustrating children's books.

67. Chelsea Hogate

I Will Be Free

I will be free
Is what I keep saying to me
But the longer I live
The less I can breathe it seems.
I will be free
Maybe capture my dreams
Meet Mike Ness, write that song,
And accomplish some things.

71. Yvette Montoya

Fallen Leaf

There is so much going on in the world right now and I wanted to portray that in my banner. I knew deep down that the most valuable information I've learned in life was to enjoy the little things. Everyone has struggles from time to time, but simply stopping to smell the roses is something we all should cherish.

68. LaMonte Lamoureux

Under the Curtain

To duck dive in Cardiff is a beautiful experience; stay deep and enjoy the various colors and sounds as you rise to the surface.

LaMonte raises his family in Cardiff at the beach, in the surf and painting at home. This is my first year as an Arts Alive banner artist.

72. Pete Panciera

Pete Panciera (b.1983, Connecticut) is a designer and artist currently living and working in Encinitas, CA. Working across multiple mediums and formats, Panciera's work deals with the notions of chaos and order, the external and internal, and tries to decipher thoughts and feelings through the use of symbols, layering, writing, mark making, and repetition.

73. Mike Redman

A Day in the Life...

Our little slice of paradise... too many great spots in Cardiff to paint them all, but here's a few of my favorites.

Lots of friends too... we may be swimming, sailing, sunning, surfing, strolling or snorkeling.

And, above it all, constellation Johnny Appleseed's Hat, formally known as Orion's Belt, looks down upon us.

Artist's share of the proceeds will be donated to Cardiff 101 MainStreet.

75. Skye Walker

Fleeting

My piece this year echoes back to the days when I would doodle on my notebook and let my pen do the talking. No plan, no directive, just whatever came out. Everything is indefinite and impermanent. Life is beautiful but is full of fleeting moments that connect the dots. This piece is connected but unresolved and in the vast space of art... just a fleeting moment.

74. Tamara Totman

Time to Let Go

It's TIME to let go and follow the path leading from outer consciousness to the inner soul. Movements between the inner world and the outer world are created by the spiraling of the mind.

LEUCADIA Banners

Located on lamp posts along Hwy. 101 from La Costa Blvd. to A St. (Size: 30" x 84")

76. Michael Amorillo

Octopus Funk

In this piece, I wanted to have fun with the interaction and flow of arrows and one of my favorite sea amigos, the octopus. I have been focusing on two to three colors in my pieces lately and have been experimenting with juicy oval shaped lines and characters with no hard outline.

www.michaelamorillo.com

77. Hilary Bell

I am a local artist, jeweler and teacher. I love to create bright, vivid worlds to get lost in... I never know where my art will take me. I start each creation with an open heart and see what flows onto the canvas. Art is so crucial for people to learn to express themselves. I take great pride in teaching art to the children in my life. I have learned so much about myself and others through art. One love.

78. Rob Blackwell

Mind the Bikes!

Leucadian, husband, dad, radio show host, musician, songwriter, marketing & e-commerce professional, recovering attorney. Into SUP, surf, MTB, hike, SXSW and music, music, music.

82. Debe Hersey

Surf Check On Mars

Be it Earth or Mars, let's hope we can always find a peaceful place to dream. Debe is a hairstylist and co-owner of the Cheeky Sh'iki Salon by day, and an artist in her spare time.

79. Steve Burrows

California Coastal

Steve Burrows is a local Encinitas artist showing his love of surf, travel and adventures through art. The California Coastal banner is meant to inspire people to get out, get in it and enjoy it!! Find him at burritoart.com and follow along on his adventures. Cheers!

83. Ashley Huber

Free As the Sea

"Lover of the ocean, a mermaid at heart
Forever traveling, beauty and art
Humble roots, with gypsy wings
Passion for life, and creative things"

Having grown up on a tropical island, and always living in coastal communities, I draw my inspiration from the ocean and my captivating surroundings. Visit www.driftwooddiaries.com or follow my art/journey on Instagram: @driftwood.diaries

80. Casey Gomez

Beyond the Veil

A self-taught artist from Southern California, Casey Gomez takes an organic approach to pen & ink. Specializing in clean, repetitive lines influenced by ancient art forms such as sacred geometry and mandalas. Each piece drawn without a sketch or plan, letting the design evolve from a felt sense to a tangible image.

84. Garit Imhoff

Whale Watching On the Ocean

The idea for this year's banner came from a photograph by Lorenzo Menendez, published in the December, 2015 issue of Encinitas Magazine. This banner bears witness to the inspiration and solace I receive living next to the ocean in Leucadia.

81. Mary Helmreich

Balloons Over San Elijo Lagoon

We took our grandson to watch the hot air balloons take off from Rancho Santa Fe Road last August. We told him that the first balloons set aloft in the 1780s were made of paper. They were filled with hot air heated by burning straw, old shoes and manure. The first passengers were a duck, a chicken and a sheep.

www.mary-helmreich.artistwebsites.com

85. Karob Studios

Rescued

This year we dedicate our work to our loved ones with any number of paws. Friends who help each other, share unconditional love, revel in time spent together.
Give and Take. Work and Play. Trust and Commitment. Rescue and Rescued. Lessons to be learned. Gifts to be cherished.

86. Jeff Linsenbard

Reefer Madness

87. Judy Mock

Digging for Treasure

My son Gary and I enjoy watching the sunsets at Oceanside Pier, especially children building sandcastles or digging for buried treasure, oblivious to the incoming surf.

88. Leslie Monroy

Sappho

Leucadia; from Leucas the Greek island. Made famous by Sappho (Greek poetess/ lyricist) who composed music, defined the Sapphic meter, and authored nine books in the Alexandrian Library. On the pages shown are the nine lyric poets of Ancient Greece and the nine muses. Plato considered her the tenth muse.

89. Janice Erickson Nolan

Glorious Grandview Sunset

As a teenager, I felt a great need to watch the sunset. Most evenings, I'd ride my bike from my home to Beacons. To absorb the sublime sun sink into the imposing ocean. These days, whenever I can, Grandview is my destination, the grand palms framing the spectacular view.

90. Casey O'Connell

Hygeia Love

My paintings are my day-to-day existence made visual. This piece is based on my love for my neighbors.

caseyoconnell.com

91. Brad Schneider

Spider Trapped an Oni

This design was inspired by my love for Japanese mythology. Spider Mumm and an Oni/demon mashed together.

Owner, 454 Tattoo & Body Piercing

92. Jeanette Shires

Fiesta of the Fishes

(Third in a Series: Save Our Oceans)

A peek into the secret lives of Fantasea Fish rocking and rolling in the cradle of the deep.

93. Brett Simmons

Jungle Daze

Keep your eyes open. Even when the vegetation is thick and the light is scarce, the pineapple of truth will illuminate the way forward.

Bidder's Notes:

Thank You

There are many individuals who put much of their heart and soul, and personal time into making this event not only happen but be a great success. Please take a minute to thank them when you have the opportunity.
