ENCINITAS Small Banners (Size: 18" x 48")

Located on lamp posts along Hwy. 101 from A St. to F St.

1. Diana Bartletti

Celebrating Painted Ladies

The Springtime sky is filled with butterflies as Painted Ladies, migrating from the Anza-Borrego Desert, sail over our own back yards.

4. Justin d'artenay

Lobster Diving Season

Everybody knows Encinitas is a great place that sports a wide array of activities to do and pursue. If you're feeling adventurous and haven't been lobster diving, this is the place to start. Get out there and enjoy fresh lobster for dinner tonight while you can. Lobster diving season runs from Oct to March.

End of Day

The end of a beautiful day at the shoreline with family. The beaches are our playground. Coastal sands, changing tides and magnificent sunsets. A perfect day at the shore with the most magnificent colors painted in His special style, never the same, but unique to each day.

5. Diane Dudek

Turquoise Ocean

Diane Dudek is a long time resident of Encinitas. You can see her art at sandieguitoartguild.com. Or contact Diane at dianebethdudek@gmail.com

3. Dody Crawford

Totem

A totem serves as an emblem of a family, a clan. These three are a branch of my clan and create a totem of their own. Mother Michelle is the foundational rock on which this totem is built. Father Niles is the inspirational facet with guiding aesthetic. And little man Evan is the sprite who brings joy and wonder and hope to our entire clan.

6. Anthony Florio

Spirit Guardian

I am truly honored to be a part of Arts Alive for the second year. I love the opportunity it provides. It pushes me to break out my paints and create. This year I have painted The Spirit Guardian. My inspiration for her was street art and Japanese culture.

11. Kathleen McCord

Summer Olympics 2020

Kathi McCord is a printmaker, book illustrator and professor of art and film. Her years of illustrating books for children inspired the mice and her years at Comic Con inspired the skateboard designs. Her banner is inspired by the inclusion of Skateboarding in the 2020 Summer Olympics.

8. Janet Hansen

Stained Glass

These brightly colored intersecting circles are outlined in black, to mimic a stained glass effect.

Janet is an Encinitas-based artist with strong technical influences. In addition to painting in an abstract geometric style, she also creates illuminated fine art, and LED clothing and costumes. (see janethansen.com and enlighted.com)

12. Mike Murphy

Beacons

Beacons is one of my favorite places on earth for watching nature in action. The view is different every day. The sand coming and going, the greening of the bluff in Spring and the browning in Summer. The storms of Fall and Winter and constant flow of beachgoers with smiles on their faces.

9. Annie Leaf

Moonlight Sentinel

A 1958 photo shows the Moonlight Beach Canary Island Date Palm next to a group of buildings, its trunk about 20 ft tall, topped by cascading fronds. Likely fed by Cottonwood Creek, the fresh water stream that flows to the Ocean, the Palm towers 90 ft today. My painting honors this amazing Sentinel in the Sand, bathed in light by the setting sun.

13. Kylie Schwartz

Three Cardinals in the Snow

A few pops of red against a baby blue sky. Snow hangs on the tree branches, silent and heavy, and the air is crisp and still. It is peaceful here.

10. Christinia Lee

Untitled

I am an active 101 year old. In '94 I became a member of the Artists' Colony and in '95 I began teaching Hawaiian Dance at Carlsbad Senior Ctr. When classes grew there was less time for painting. In December 2019 I retired but "Halau Hula 'O Pualani" continues under Laurie Reed who is an excellent teacher. Now I'm back to painting. Danny Salzhandler asked me to paint a banner....it has been a joy to paint again.

14. Teresa M. Staal-Cowley

Highway 101 at Mud Bay Olympia

This will be my fourth Arts Alive Banner. I was a studio artist at the 101 Artists' Colony before I moved to Washington State to complete a prior learning from experience document [PLE] called Art of Therapy at the Evergreen State College. I have always had an interest in the arts and began studying art and exhibiting when I was a child. I am most known as a Mixed Media Artist, Calligrapher and Advocate.

15. Vincent Tessieri

Hanami

~ The Japanese traditional custom of enjoying the transient beauty of flowers ~
It was fun to paint something different.
Stoked to be a part of it. Thanks.

16. Cristine Weatherby

Beach Town

I make art to share an open heart.
Every day I am stopped in my tracks by something wonderful and if I am fortunate enough to get it down on paper, then I get to share that wonderful. I have been working at painting and drawing for a long time now and I am still feeling the excitement in every new project.
Thank you!

17. Isabella Weaver

Crooked

This piece depicts the simple relationship between natural beings and their environment. I find the harshness of crows and desert landscapes to be intriguing – raw and beautiful.
I am a junior at San Dieguito Academy. This is my third time participating in Arts Alive, and I am very grateful to the foundation for offering me this wonderful opportunity.

18. Laura K Woodward

Stars of the Sea

I love to paint scenes from the coral reef because of all the fun I can have with color and form, fitting it all together like a puzzle. From the beautiful, spotted, little Banggai Cardinalfish to the colorful, ever fascinating starfish, the myriad creatures and plants of the reef are all Stars of the Sea.

19. Naimeh Woodward

Save the Bees

With this playful painting, I wish to inspire a love of nature and in particular honey bees. Bees play a vital role in our ecosystem. The death of bees is not just a natural tragedy, it presents a potential threat to the continuation of human life as we know it. A quarter of the food Americans eat comes from plants pollinated by honey bees. So, let's do what we can to educate and take steps to save them.

ENCINITAS Large Banners (Size: 30" x 84")

Located on lamp posts along Hwy. 101 from F St. to K St.

20. Marina Alberti

Woman of the Sea

She soars through the waves, her hair flowing up above her head. The sea floor comes alive with thick kelp forests that embrace her, curling around her face. She loves the sea and the sea loves her. Take a deep breath and dive with her. A little about the artist: Marina is a 17 year old artist planning to major in art at a university in the fall of 2020. She currently has art hanging in the Capitol in DC.

23. Lauren Bartram

String Theory

Over the years of being able to be involved with Arts Alive I've slowly been making each banner simpler and bolder. I love being able to see the subject matter while driving down the 101. Being able to distinguish what the image is in the quick moment you pass it is my goal. I also enjoy the juxtaposition of pattern and solid saturation. I approach tattoos in a similar way and find success doing so.

21. Kevin Anderson

Untitled

These colors go good together.

24. Victoria Bearden

Kymopoleia

Kymopoleia is the Greek Goddess of sea storms. She's down there, protecting sea life, and conjuring up some big waves for our local surfers! I am a professional psychic and astrologer, and lover of mythology and goddesses, so my banners always have a magical, mystical theme. My goddess paintings pay homage to the sacred energy of our great mother, The Earth, who sustains us all. Love and Ocean Blessings!

Yellowtail

'Yellowtail' is an homage to how beautiful, graceful and tough the ocean is. I am grateful for the spiritual enrichment, the physical nourishment and the bounty provided by the ocean. For inquiries please contact: @cavewoman.art

26. Donna Butnik

Sunset Ride

Riding the wave.

27. Bre Custodio

Exhale

In Sept 2019 I lost most of my original art works in a gallery fire. As I am painting this banner, brush fires are wiping out the Australian outback. Rainbows are the perfect reminder of the beauty that can arise from the storm, the constant flow and transformation around us. A simple reminder to stay present and to look for moments of magic. I am donating a portion to help the animal fire victims at the Australia Zoo.

28. Christopher Dillman

Mid-Century Modern On The 101

Celebrating businesses and brands that still remain from the 1960s on our Encinitas 101.

A fine arts major from the University of the Pacific, Christopher Dillman has painted his admiration for Arts Alive and North County San Diego since 2008. For Christopher's collection of works, please visit www.fullblend.com.

29. Cheryl Ehlers

Searching ....

Searching.... We all seek the cradle of life that protects and nurtures us. I enjoy sharing great experiences and painting from emotion with a bold and colorful palette which brings joy into my world. Working in several mediums, 2D and 3D art, it is the creative escape that encourages me to explore my depths without fear. cheryl@cherylehlersart.com

I Dream of Dolphins

Dolphin song is a breath of ocean air
Gracefully dancing, leaping and playing
Sparkling rich diamond drops in the sea
Live freely and joyfully
Repeat their smiles, mimic their joy
Pay attention to the sky, dive deep, what's below?
Spread Love boundlessly
And let play balance the earth

33. Jim Hornung

Origin of the Species

Puppyism revolutionized the course of art, and continues to transform our views of the world.

34. Darlene Katz

Cowabunga!

Find Darlene's award winning work in SoCal galleries, national juried shows, and international collections. She captures important moments of our lives, whether a special place, wedding, birth, or pet with a favorite toy. Her unique style is bold and technically proficient, no matter what the subject. ## 35. Patti McDuffie

Swami's

A native Southern Californian, Patti's love of the ocean and lagoons is reflected in her paintings. Favorite subjects include seascapes, landscapes, wildlife, shells, and flowers. Patti taught art for 11 years at a local elementary school and is a preschool teacher who brings art of the masters to very young children. She believes that hands-on learning is key at any age.

36. Peggy Sue Designs

Whimsical Wonderland

I am proud to say this is really an Arts Alive or my Art coming alive. I love doing whimsical ideas and this one is full blown out whimsical. When you Believe and let your Imagination go the world comes alive...everywhere! So much fun. Check out all my other designs at Lazy Acres, Gelson's, Carlsbad Ranch Market, Otterlei Coastal and Oceanside Museum of Art.
Thank you to Arts Alive!!

37. Tom Rogo

Surfari: Highway 101

I am a representational painter from San Diego. For most of my adult life I have been a painter, self-taught, while also teaching full time at a local college. I don't paint the world as I see it but rather how I want it to be. My art themes focus on the golden era of surfing during the 40s, 50s, and 60s. This was a carefree time of sharing waves, surf exploration and finding a ride to the beach.

38. Julie Ann Stricklin

One Reality Behind Another

If you look beyond what is in front of you, you can see another world. I tried to illustrate this concept with a garden behind stained glass. The Tree of Life has been designed with hidden images and color to capture attention. If you look beyond what is in front, you will see hummingbirds, ferns, flowers & spiraling tendrils. Another world is hidden, yet still available for you to see if you look beyond the obvious.

39. Elisabeth Sullivan

California Majesty

Encinitas artist Elisabeth Sullivan's acrylic paintings and murals are inspired by her fascination with the incredible forces of nature and the magnificent creatures that inhabit this beautiful planet. For my banner this year my focus was the California coast, and what could be more magnificent than the Coastal Redwood? www.elisabethsullivan.com

40. Grace Swanson

Swallow's Nest

Swallow's Nest is a castle located on the Crimean peninsula. It was built in 1912 on top of a 130 foot high cliff overlooking the Black Sea. Currently it is a very popular visitor attraction with a restaurant and has been in several movies. What attracted me to this castle was how it hung out over the water — with parts of the balconies and patios actually extending beyond the rock face, jutting into thin air.

41. Tish Wynne

Jack's Prickly Paradise

The Southwestern landscape is where you will find the Jack Rabbit. The Jack rabbit is a mysterious creature that is rarely seen in the California desert. But if you take a walk through the wild areas of this prickly and barren desert you just might get a glimpse of one. It is important that we protect our open landscapes for the Jack rabbit and all wildlife to live and thrive.

42. Christina Zeller

Lanikai Beach

I never get tired exploring Hawaii's beautiful coastline and landscape. Inspired by my trip to Oahu and especially Lanikai beach I wanted to capture the beauty of this tropical botanical paradise. The gorgeous views and the warm Pacific Ocean water are truly exceptional and I am so looking forward to going back to Lanikai beach sometime very soon.

43. Billy Barnett

Space-hexwave

Billy is the owner/ artist of EVENTIDE TATTOO in Cardiff by the Sea. He's lived in north county San Diego for the last 24 years. Tattooing and pursuing his passion for art and creating things in an array of different mediums. "Space-hexwave" is inspired by his lifelong fascination with waves and patterns.

45. Roger Chandler

Murph the Surf Dog!!

MURPH the SURF DOG!! was inspired by legendary surf artist Rick Griffin's "Murph the Surf"! Thank you, Rick, for all of your beautiful, iconic surf art, poster art, album cover art from the '60s and '70s! COWABUNGA!!!

44. Cathy Carey

Swami's

I am a Contemporary Expressive Colorist. I use color to create emotional meaning. My goal is to paint what it feels like, not what it looks like. In order to express this, I use brush-strokes to show the lines of energy I feel surrounding living shapes, spreading across the universe. I believe that all matter vibrates with the energy of consciousness, and we are all connected through beauty and love.

46. Karin Keller

CARDIFF

I'm grateful to live, surf, and make art in Cardiff! If this banner sells, 100% of my proceeds will go to the COMMUNITY RESOURCE CENTER in honor of my Dad, Kenneth Johnson, the consummate community volunteer. He can't volunteer anymore due to Alzheimer's. It's my turn, Dad. Check out all the great ways CRC helps our community at: <https://crcncc.org> karinkellerart.com instagram: karinkellerart

Cardiff-by-the-Sea Three

A community supporting our Cardiff School District students and staff to be the successes that every one of them has potential to be.

"The youth of today are the leaders of tomorrow." Nelson Mandela

"The greatness of a community is most accurately measured by the compassionate actions of its members" Coretta Scott King

48. Shannon Martin

Grace & Glory

Grace & Glory was inspired by Hinds' "Feet in High Places" by Hannah Hurnard. This allegorical novel illustrates the Christian journey and is based on the verse Habakkuk 3:19 "The Lord God is my strength, He will make my feet like hinds' feet and He will make me to walk upon mine high places". It is only when you fully trust and receive the love of Jesus that you can live victoriously and pour out love to others.

49. Artie Mattson

Mid-Mod Treasures

This year I am reaching back 70 + years to the 1940's and '50s to create four mid-century modern still- lifes: Bright colors, clean lines and stylish designs characteristic of that period. 1. Bird on a table. 2. Still life with fruit. 3. Mandolin with pink cat and last but not least 4. Two martini lunch.

50. Traci Sally

Golden Hour

As an artist I've always been largely inspired by my surroundings and the community around me. I originally grew up and attended art school in Philadelphia studying design, illustration & print. I relocated to North County San Diego 8 years ago looking for a change. What I found was a community along the 101 that accepted me with open arms. My artwork is a visual diary of the beautiful life I made here in CA.

51. Debbie Schaefer

The Bubble Man

The Bubble Man brings his magic for children and grownups alike to Moonlight Beach.

I am grateful every day, as a long time transplant from the East Coast, to enjoy all nature provides for us and walk in its beauty. All of us who participate in Arts Alive appreciate Norma and Danny's dedication to continuing this widely anticipated and popular tradition.

Zig-Zag Man

In the spirit of Peter Tosh's song from 1976, "Legalize it and I will advertise it." This vintage image from that era celebrates the irony of the way our changing world is evolving. I'm so thankful that I can participate in this groovy community tradition. Come see me at the Leucadia Farmers Market and hear the world music I make at the Encinitas Library.

Time's Up

Currently in an apprenticeship position at 454 Tattoo in Encinitas, I have the opportunity to study classic motifs of tattoo history every day. Of the many essential designs I considered, the dagger seemed best suited for this banner. Something that can be read at 40 miles per hour, 100 feet away. I hope you all enjoy seeing it as much as I enjoyed painting it.

61. Bradford Schneider

Dragon Sleeve

The image I chose to do is a Chinese traditional Dragon framed onto an arm. I've been working at the same tattoo shop in Leucadia for 22 years now. It has been an amazing experience to be a tattoo artist in this great community. Originally called Beachin Tattoo est. 1990, the name changed to 454 Tattoo in 2004. Please feel free to stop by and say hi. Cheers Brad Instagram @tattooobrad
